

New grid-connected PV projects equipped with energy storage

Overview

The world's first intelligent grid-forming photovoltaic and energy storage power station, tailored for ultra-high altitudes, low-temperatures and weak-grid scenarios, has been connected to the grid in Ngari prefecture, Southwest China's Xizang autonomous region. We expect 63 gigawatts (GW) of new utility-scale electric-generating capacity to be added to the U. This amount represents an almost 30% increase from 2024 when 48.6 GW of capacity was installed, the largest. An increasing number of grid-connected PV systems are now being combined with battery storage.
