

Port moresby outdoor telecom enclosure 100kW

Support photovoltaic input and AC mains input
Suitable for home energy storage and emergency backup power supply

The image is a composite. At the top, a modern house with a large glass facade is shown. Below this, on the left, is a tall, white, rectangular outdoor telecom enclosure with a small black panel near the top. To the right of the enclosure is a text box containing two lines of italicized text. Below the text box is a framed inset image showing various smart home appliances: a ceiling-mounted air conditioner, a range hood, a refrigerator, a gas stove, and a laptop computer.
